

GOD IS: TRUSTING GOD IN TURBULENT TIMES (FAMILY STUDY GUIDE)
LESSON #10: NO ONE TO ANSWER? (ISAIAH 50:1-51:23)

Step 1: Big Ideas

LISTEN TO THE SERVANT OF THE LORD!

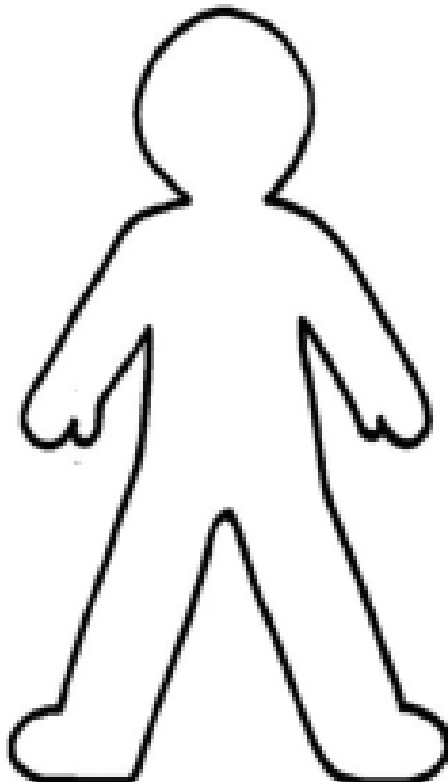

Step 2: Read

Read Isaiah 50:1-51:23

Step 3: Reflect

Read Isaiah 50:4-9 The Servant of the Lord describes himself in these verses. List these character traits around the outline below.

What Does Isaiah 50 and 51 Teach Us To Do?

Read Isaiah 51:9 and write the first 2 words here: _____

Read Isaiah 51:17 and write the first 2 words here: _____

Read Isaiah 50:10. Circle three things we are called to do:

Who among you fears the LORD
and obeys the voice of his servant?
Let him who walks in darkness
and has no light
trust in the name of the LORD
and rely on his God.

Read each verse listed below and write the first few words for each verse in the lines given.

Isaiah 51:1: _____

Isaiah 51:4 _____

Isaiah 51:7: _____

Question: What patterns do you see in all these verses? Isaiah 50-51 tells us to awake and listen to what the Servant of the Lord says. What can we do to be better listeners?

Step 4: Memorize

Isaiah 50:10

Who among you fears the LORD
and OBEYS the voice of his servant?
Let him who walks in darkness
and has no light
TRUST in the name of the LORD
and RELY on his God.

Step 5: Prayer

Thank you Father for loving us and sending your son Jesus. Help us to listen, obey, trust, and rely on you. In your name we pray, Amen.
